

Il Dipartimento di Economia Seminario internazionale

The International Monetary Fund on Inequality and Gender

A Snapshot of the IMF's Analytical, Policy and Operational Work on Inequality and Gender

Stefania Fabrizio, FMI
Marina Mendes Tavares, FMI

Benvenuto:

Silvia Terzi, Direttore Dipartimento di Economia

Introduzione:

Carlo Pietrobelli, Dipartimento di Economia

Commentano:

Pasquale Di Muro, Dipartimento di Economia

Pasquale Tridico, Dipartimento di Economia

A key objective under the IMF mandate is to promote sustainable growth, which can be achieved by fostering inclusiveness, including of gender. The presentation from Stefania Fabrizio and Marina Mendes Tavares will discuss: (i) the IMF's analytical work on the drivers of inequality and gender gap and on how they relate to sustained and inclusive growth has been informing the Fund's policy dialogue with countries; (ii) the IMF's ongoing capacity building and technical assistance work to achieve more inclusive growth; and (iii) plans to deepen such efforts in the future.

Bios

Stefania Fabrizio is Deputy Unit Chief in the Strategy, Policy, and Review Department of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and chair of the IMF advisory groups on inequality and gender. Previously, she worked in the Fiscal Affairs Department, the European Department, and the African Department. Her research interests include macroeconomics, public finance and fiscal institutions, trade, and she has worked extensively on policy issues related to the distributional implications of macroeconomic policies and reforms. Prior to joining the IMF, she was visiting professor at the University of Salamanca, Spain. She holds a PhD in economics from the European University Institute.

Marina Mendes Tavares is an economist in the Strategy Policy and Review Department (SPR) of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), and leader of the working group on the interconnections between macroeconomic policy and inequality. This group has developed the "Macroeconomic and Distributional Analysis Model" (M-DAM) that has been used extensively at the Fund to operationalize inequality in surveillance and program countries. Her research interests include macroeconomics, public finance and inequality. Prior to joining the Fund Ms. Tavares worked as an assistant professor at Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM) and she holds a PhD in Economics from the University of Minnesota.

Mercoledì 21 marzo 2018
ore 11.00 – Aula 7

Dipartimento di Economia - Università degli Studi Roma Tre
Via Silvio D'Amico 77, 00145 Roma

La partecipazione è aperta a tutti gli interessati